Our whole birds come with pop-up timers to help with cooking. Ask a member of staff for one of our cooking guidelines leaflets or download a copy from our website. When choosing turkey, it is more cost-effective to buy a whole turkey which come with giblets, perfect for making stocks and gravy. Our butchers are also happy to crown and roll the legs for use at a later date, if requested. Leftovers can be used for casseroles, curries and soup etc and are suitable for freezing. Check out some of our favourite leftover recipes on our website.

GOODMAN'S FREE-RANGE TURKEYS

Top quality, free-range whole turkeys and crowns are produced for us by the Goodman family in Worcestershire. These great tasting turkeys are fed a special diet and grown slowly for maximum flavour. Whole birds and crowns are available.

TRADITIONAL FREE- RANGE GESE

The most traditional of festive birds, our Geese are produced by speciality farmers, Goodman's Geese in Worcestershire. Goodman's have won numerous awards for their outstanding free-range Geese and pride themselves on the quality and flavour of the birds. Naturally reared, the Geese are free to roam grassy paddocks and are fed a home-grown, specially prepared diet which helps to produce a succulent, tender product. They are dry-plucked and hung for 7-10 days to allow the meat to mature. We recommend allowing approximately 1kg per person.

FREE-RANGE CHICKENS & COCKERELS

Our selection of Free-Range chickens and cockerels are sourced from our friends at Packington Farm in Staffordshire. For a bird that packs a punch, you can't look past these traditionally farmed cockerels, fed on natural diets and free to roam in grassy pastures.

FREE-RANGE DUCKS

Slow grown and full of flavour, our whole roasted Devonshire ducks are a real treat, sure to impress your guests. A 2.5kg duck will feed approximately 4-6 people.

FESTIVE FORCEMEAT

Made using the finest pork sausage meat blended with fresh ingredients, our homemade forcemeats are the ultimate accompaniment to your Christmas feast. Three pies are displayed on a wooden cutting board. The pie in the foreground is a large, round, golden-brown pie, sliced open to reveal a thick, pinkish-red meat filling.
